MESSAGE FROM THE DIRECTOR

Thank you so very much for supporting our show choir competition! This is my first year in Virginia, at Clover Hill, and at the high school level, so it has been a tremendous change for my family and me. We couldn't be happier here! Everything from the lifestyle, neighborhoods, school system, and plenty to do has been wonderful for us to take part in!

3 years ago I saw Clover Hill High School show choirs perform at Matoaca High School's competition for the first time. I was blown away! They really inspired my program. Two years ago I attended MASS as a spectator to support my former students who had moved on to high school and were competing. I loved the atmosphere and how smooth of a competition it was, so much so I registered my own group for the following year (last year) right away! Last year I brought my former program here and we had such a great time. The kids still say it was by far their favorite competition.

Who would have thought...3 years later after being introduced to this program, I would be leading it. So many twists and turns, and divine intervention, lead to this coming into fruition. I am very confident that my leadership abilities will aid in the continuation of a well-oiled machine when it comes to this amazing competition. I love all things schedules, planning, and details :)

No matter what school is performing on our stage, it is my hope that we, directors, students, and audience, will all encourage, applaud, and cheer on every group. We are all here to compete, but more so, celebrate the art we have created. We are all here to showcase what months of hard work and planning have accomplished. Make it a point to tell each other how much you liked certain aspects of their show...from costumes to song choice to stage set up to showmanship. A kind word goes a LONG way. Let's show the world that while we are all in it to win it, we are equally as concerned with supporting each other, each other's art, and each other's self-image. Here at The Hill, our choral programs pride ourselves on only sharing the positive, encouraging, and respect of other programs. We hope you will join us in only sharing and speaking the positive, but more so, making it a point to speak up and tell others the positive their shows had. You may just be the one person who makes someone feel good about themselves that day.

Sing'cerely,

Rachel Snyder,
Choral Director

Up Front is the girls' show choir from Matoaca HS in Chesterfield, VA. The group is comprised of 35 singer/dancers and an outstanding show band of 22 band members called "Tempo Tantrum". The girls' group is so thankful for the art of show choir where they can learn so many things about themselves and through song lyrics inspire and help each other on how to navigate through life and be successful. The show ballad and second half of the show holds particular meaning for the girls this year. Up Front's hope is that the lyrics remind us all of some things that will help you escape from fear and anxiety that may keep you from reaching your potential. We hope you enjoy the show and are left feeling inspired and encouraged!

RHAPSODY

DIRECTOR: HEATHER ANDRE
CHOREOGRAPHER: JASON PEACE

When she was told she would never make it on the New York stage, she found her way to Hollywood. When she was told beautiful women can't be funny, she became America's favorite clown. When she was told she couldn't star in a television show next to her Cuban husband, she created her own production company and put her name in the title. In our 13th competition season, Rhapsody pays homage to the life of Technicolor Tessie, the Queen of the B Movies, the First Lady of Television, to the woman we love... Lucy.

Under the direction of Heather Andre with choreography by Jason Peace, assistant direction by Ella Mort, and featuring the Cosby Sound Machine under the direction of Ian Krauss, Cosby High School proudly presents, Rhapsody!!
